Pineapple Jalapeño Pork Ribs

Serves 4

1 tablespoon Wildtree Natural Grapeseed Oil
1 pound pork spare-ribs, boneless
1 tablespoon salt
1/2 tablespoon ground black pepper
3 tablespoons Wildtree Pineapple Jalapeño Jam
1/4 cup chopped pineapple, fresh
1/4 cup pineapple juice

Heat Grapeseed Oil in a medium sauté pan over medium-high heat. Lightly season the spare ribs with salt and pepper and place in the pan. Brown each side before turning, about 2 minutes per side. Transfer the spare ribs to slow cooker and add the Pineapple Jalapeño Jam, chopped pineapple, and pineapple juice. Cover and cook until spare ribs are fork tender, about 4-6 hours on high or 6-8 hours on low.

Pineapple Jalapeño Pork Ribs

Chicken Enchiladas

Chicken Enchiladas

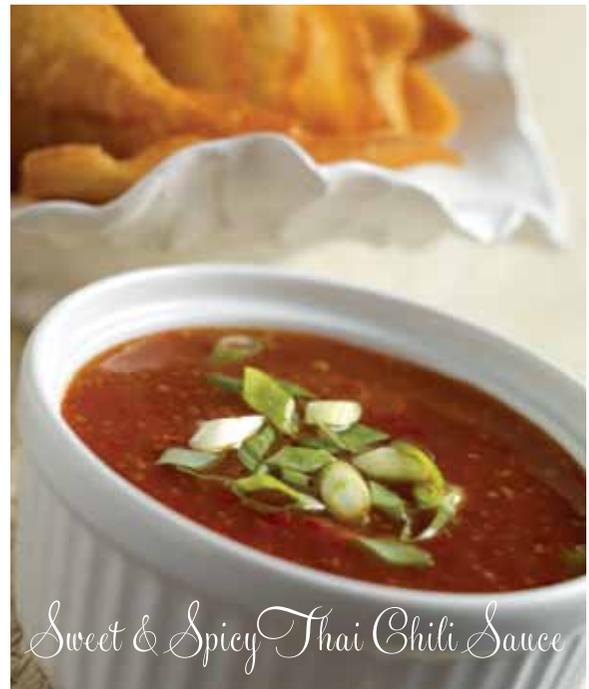

Serves 12

- 1 medium onion, finely chopped
- 1 bell pepper, thinly sliced
- 1 jalapeño, seeded and finely chopped
- 1 tablespoon Wildtree Natural Grapeseed Oil
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 4 cups cooked, shredded chicken
- 1 ½ cups Wildtree Nut-Free Mole Sauce
- 1 cup shredded cheddar cheese
- 1 cup shredded Monterey jack cheese
- ½ cup minced fresh cilantro
- 12 (6-inch) soft corn or flour tortillas

Preheat the oven to 400°F. Heat the oil in a large saucepan over medium heat. Add the onion, bell pepper, jalapeño, garlic and ½ teaspoon salt. Cook, stirring often, until the onions and peppers have softened, 5-7 minutes. Transfer to a large bowl, add the chicken and Wildtree Nut-Free Mole Sauce, and stir to combine. Add ½ cup cheddar cheese, ½ cup Monterey Jack cheese and the cilantro and toss to combine. Spoon about ⅓ cup of the chicken mixture evenly down the center of each tortilla (if necessary, soften the tortillas by heating them in the microwave). Tightly roll each tortilla and lay seam-side down in a greased 9×13 inch baking dish. Top with the remaining cheese. Cover dish with foil and bake for 20 minutes. Remove foil and bake another 5 minutes, or until cheese is browned and bubbly.
